ADDITIONAL STATUS REPORT REGARDING OPT-OUT REQUESTS

Stericycle, Inc. (“Stericycle”) and Beck Redden LLP (“Beck Redden”), by and through their respective counsel, hereby submit the following additional status report to advise the Court of the current status of discussions regarding a subset of Beck Redden clients that either have not yet submitted a cure or had submitted a late cure:

A. JOINT FACTUAL STATEMENT¹

In the process of reviewing requests for exclusion and compiling the Opt Out List in connection with this Settlement, the Class Action Settlement Administrator brought to the attention of Stericycle and Plaintiffs Lyndon Veterinary Clinic, PLLC, et al. (collectively, the “Parties”) certain issues with respect to some requests for exclusion; namely:

- Requests for exclusion in which certain entities attempted to opt out on behalf of other members of the Class by signing one request for exclusion and attaching a list of other entities that were purportedly covered by that same proposed request for exclusion (“mass opt outs”);
- Requests for exclusions that were not signed by the member of the class; and
- Requests for exclusion that could not be matched to the Class records.

¹ Unless stated otherwise, all capitalized terms have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Settlement Agreement, which was attached to the Declaration of Steve W. Berman in support of Plaintiffs’ motion for preliminary approval. See Settlement Agreement (Dkt. #306-1).

See Joint Motion (Dkt. #369) at ¶ 3. As detailed in the Joint Motion, the Parties believed these requests for exclusions failed to comply with the requirements stated in the Settlement Agreement for properly opting out. See id. at ¶¶5-14.

The Parties then sought an order from the Court that would allow those entities that submitted requests for exclusions signed by counsel and those that did not match the class data an opportunity cure the identified deficiency. See Joint Motion (Dkt. #369) at ¶¶ 11-14. The Parties also sought an order from the Court that the “mass opt outs” should not be permitted to cure their deficient request. See id. at ¶¶ 5-10. The Court granted the Parties’ motion on March 1, 2018. See March 1, 2018 Order (Dkt. #372).

Beck Redden represents a number of clients whose interests are implicated by the Settlement, and Beck Redden submitted opt-out notices on behalf of those clients on January 22, 2018 (Dkt #379-1). When Beck Redden learned of the March 1, 2018 Order, it filed an emergency motion for reconsideration on March 8, 2018, just prior to the Fairness Hearing. See Emergency Motion (Dkt. #379). The Court and the Parties addressed Beck Redden’s motion in detail at the Fairness Hearing, and as a result of those discussions, the Parties agreed to allow those entities identified as “mass opt outs” an opportunity to cure the defect and sought approval from the Court to send a letter to those “mass opt outs,” identifying the deficiency and providing the member of the Class ten (10) days to correct the deficiency and submit a valid request for exclusion. See Joint Motion to Approve Letter to Opt Outs (Dkt. #384). On March 14, 2018, the Court granted the Parties’ request and approved the letter to be sent to the “mass opt outs.” See March 14, 2018 Order (Dkt. #386).

On March 19, 2018, the Class Action Settlement Administrator sent the letters, and all letters were copied to counsel by email if counsel were known. See Garr Decl. (Dkt. #408-1) at ¶¶ 6-7. The purported opt outs and their attorneys had until March 29, 2018 to cure any deficiencies and to return valid requests for exclusion to the Class Action Settlement Administrator. See id.

Following the cure period, Beck Redden and the Parties have worked constructively to address any remaining issues with respect to Beck Redden's clients. As a result of those discussions, a dispute remains with respect to only forty-four (44) requests for exclusions submitted by Beck Redden. Of the requests that remain disputed, forty (40) did not submit any cure and the Parties believe that they remain deficient: thirty-one (31) are signed only by an attorney, fifteen (15) were deemed "mass opt outs" and six (6) fall into both categories. See Garr Decl. (Dkt. #408-1) at ¶8 & Ex. D. The final four (4) requests for exclusion were submitted late. See id. Beck Redden disputes that these requests are or remain deficient.

Stericycle and Beck Redden submit their positions regarding the disputed opt outs below.

B. BECK REDDEN'S POSITION

1. Beck Redden respectfully submits that the original opt-out notices of its clients were valid, and thus the failure of these 44 clients to tender timely cures is legally immaterial. Beck Redden does not wish to frustrate the class settlement, but simply to protect the rights of its clients who chose to opt out. The total value assigned to these 44 clients in the settlement appears to be less than $50,000.

2. It is settled that "each class member in actions for money damages is entitled as a matter of due process to personal notice and an opportunity to opt out of the class action." Lemon v. Int'l Union of Operating Engineers, Local No. 139, 216 F.3d 577, 580 (7th Cir. 2000). Thus, courts should not place onerous burdens on class members who wish to opt out; if a person or entity has fairly indicated its desire not to be bound by a class settlement, courts should respect that decision.

3. The Parties' principal objection appears to be that the original opt-outs were signed by attorneys rather than by clients, but neither the settlement and class notice nor the caselaw prohibits attorneys from signing opt-out forms on behalf of their clients. As a general rule, an attorney may sign an opt-out request on behalf of the client. Because attorneys have the power to sign documents on their clients' behalf, "the legal propriety of attorneys signing their clients' opt-out requests cannot be impugned." In re Gen. Am. Life Ins. Co. Sales Practices Litig., 268 F.3d 627, 635 (8th Cir. 2001), vacated on other grounds sub nom. Henderson v. Gen. Am. Life Ins. Co., 536 U.S. 919 (2002).

4. This general rule can be varied if a court order regarding class notice expressly advises absent class members that attorneys cannot act on their behalf, such as by language requiring opt-outs to "include the Class Member's signature (an attorney's signature is not sufficient)," Muzuco v. Re$ubmitIt, LLC, No. CV 11-62628-CIV, 2014 WL 11531784, at *2 (S.D. Fla. June 25, 2014) (emphasis added), or by language requiring opt-out forms to "be personally signed by the Settlement Class Member requesting exclusion." Hallie v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 2:12-CV-00235-PPS, 2015 WL 1914864, at *2 (N.D. Ind. Apr. 27, 2015) (emphasis added). But here, the settlement notice only requested "your signature" from members who wished to opt out. Given the due process principles at stake, this language was not sufficiently explicit to alter the general rule. For this reason, the original opt-outs signed by counsel were valid.

5. Contrary to the Parties' claim, these are not "mass opt-outs." The general prohibition on "mass" or "class" opt-outs stems from policy concerns that attorneys should not be allowed to exercise rights they do not actually possess by opting out class members they do not represent. E.g., Hanlon v. Chrysler Corp., 150 F.3d 1011, 1024 (9th Cir. 1998); Moulton v. U.S. Steel Corp., 581 F.3d 344, 355 (6th Cir. 2009). That concern is valid in the context of opt-out notices filed by counsel on behalf of an uncertified putative class, e.g., Hanlon, 150 F.3d at 1024, but that is not what happened here.

6. Parent corporations are entitled to opt out multiple business offices. Similarly, courts allow parent companies to opt out their affiliates and subsidiaries. See, e.g., Thomas J. Lipton, Inc. v. Owens-Illinois, Inc., 89 C 6038, 1990 WL 8680, at *2 (N.D. Ill. Jan. 17, 1990) (opt-out of corporate affiliates is proper if request "can reasonably be read to include them and [the party signing the notice] had legal authority to speak for them"); In re TFT-LCD (Flat Panel) Antitrust Litig., 37 F. Supp. 3d 1102, 1106 (N.D. Cal. 2014) (allowing parent to opt out on behalf of non-operating subsidiary despite not mentioning subsidiary by name in request). Accordingly, Beck Redden respectfully submits that the original opt-out notices sent on behalf of corporate subsidiaries and affiliates were not "mass opt outs," and were valid.

7. If the Court agrees that the original opt-outs were valid, it will be unnecessary to address the distinct position of the few Beck Redden clients who tendered their "cure" notices after the 10-day period. Otherwise, Beck Redden asks that their notices be accepted even if tardy. See MANUAL FOR COMPLEX LITIGATION § 21.321 (4th ed. 2004), 2004 WL 258809 ("The judge may treat as effective a tardy election to opt out."). Beck Redden contacted all its clients immediately upon learning of the 10-day cure period and requested the information required by the Court. Those clients whose cures were tendered late attempted to return their information to

Beck Redden before the deadline but encountered communication difficulties. Beck Redden did not tender those cures immediately, planning to raise the issue at the hearing, but did so after Stericycle's counsel asked that any late cures be sent to the Administrator. See Price Dec. at ¶¶ 2-13.

C. STERICYCLE'S POSITION

Stericycle respectfully submits that the Court has already determined that requests for exclusion that were signed only by an attorney and those that attempted to opt out on behalf of other members of the class failed to comply with the requirements stated in the Settlement Agreement for properly opting out. See March 14, 2018 Order (Dkt. #386); March 1, 2018 Order (Dkt. #372); Joint Motion (Dkt. #369) at ¶¶5-14 & Ex. A at ¶ 12; Settlement Agreement (Dkt. #306-1) at § VI. Beck Redden has not provided any reason to reconsider the Court's prior orders. See disc. infra at 6-10.

Attorney-signed requests for exclusion violate the directions in the Class Action Notice, which was incorporated into both the Settlement Agreement and the Preliminary Approval Order and which clearly requires the signature of the member of the Class. See Joint Motion (Dkt. #369) at Ex. A at ¶ 12. Indeed, the Class Action Notice specifically directs that "[i]n the letter, you must include your name (or the name of your business that was a Stericycle customer), address and your signature." Id. (emphasis supplied). The Class Action Notice is provided to members of the Class (not their attorneys), and as such, "you" is plainly used throughout the notice to refer to the member of the Class. See id. at Ex. A at passim. There is no reasonable reading of this sentence that would lead to the conclusion that a request for exclusion could be signed by an attorney rather than by a member of the Class. See id. at Ex. A at ¶ 12.

To that end, multiple courts have rejected opt out requests that were signed solely by an attorney, noting that allowing attorneys to act for class members undermines the purposes of class settlements:

The purpose of requiring the class member to actually sign the opt out—as opposed to allowing a lawyer to sign it for her—is to give assurance to the defendants that the class member does not wish to be bound by the settlement. . . . Class actions and class settlements would lose their effectiveness if internal struggles among different plaintiffs’ lawyers and factions of plaintiffs were paired with an easy way to fragment the class. Requiring a personally signed, individual request for exclusion from class settlement heightens the likelihood that each class plaintiff will make an informed, individualized decision whether to opt out, and courts want to encourage this careful decision making process.

Hallie v. Wells Fargo, 2015 WL 1914864, at *4 (N.D. Ind. 2015); see also Moulton v. U.S. Steel Corp., 581 F.3d 344, 347-48 (6th Cir. 2009) (rejecting opt out requests signed only by an attorney, but allowing the client an opportunity to cure); In re Jevic Holding, 2010 WL 3431985, at *3 (Bankr. D. Del. 2010) (same); In re Host Am. Corp. Sec. Litig., 2008 WL 4425932, at *3 (D. Conn. 2008) (same).²

And the concern that the attorney is appropriately acting for the client is not merely an academic one. See, e.g., Moulton, 581 F.3d at 355 (“Given the real risk that the attorney-signed opt-out forms did not reflect the wishes of class members, the district court appropriately exercised its power by requiring individually signed opt-out forms (and rejecting the attorney-signed forms).”). For example, Stericycle understands that Beck Redden has not been able to reach the forty (40) clients who have not submitted cures. As such, Stericycle respectfully submits that there is reason to question whether those individuals and entities truly wish to pursue the requests for exclusion submitted by Beck Redden. See id.

² Despite Beck Redden’s representation, it is not a “general rule” that attorneys may sign a request for exclusion on behalf of a client. See disc. supra at 4. As has been noted by multiple courts, nothing in In re Gen. Am. Life Ins. Co. Sales Practices Litig., 268 F.3d 627, 635 (8th Cir. 2001) requires a court to accept requests for exclusion that are signed by attorneys. See, e.g., Smith v. Seeco, Inc., 2017 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 217445, at *16 (E.D. Ark. 2017) (“It is true that the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals has, in a case that was subsequently vacated on other grounds by the Supreme Court, recognized that a lawyer’s signature could stand in the place of a class member’s signature. . . . There is also clear authority reinforcing that district courts have discretion to evaluate the situation and proceed accordingly.”); Moulton, 581 F.3d at 355 (holding that no authority that “requires” courts to accept out-outs signed by attorneys). Instead, courts retain broad discretion in addressing opt outs requests. See id.

In addition, on at least three occasions, a request for exclusion was submitted by both Beck Redden and Meyers and Flowers for the very same entity, creating obvious concerns. See Lally Decl., Ex. B, at ¶2. While these requests for exclusion were properly signed by the entity seeking exclusion, the fact that there were requests for exclusion for the same entity filed by unrelated sets of attorneys underscores the need to have the client sign the request for exclusion to ensure that the client’s wishes are being met. See, e.g., Moulton, 581 F.3d at 355. Similarly, on at least one occasion, a request for exclusion was submitted by Beck Redden on behalf of an entity that is named in one of the suits filed by Meyers and Flowers in Kane County. See Lally Decl., Ex. B, at ¶3. Again, the fact that the request for exclusion was submitted with an attorney signature that was different from the attorney that filed suit on behalf of the same entity that was purportedly opting out underscores the need for precision in ensuring that the requests for exclusion actually reflect the desire of the member of the class.

With respect to the “mass opt outs,” those opt outs were expressly barred by the Settlement and by well-settled law. See Joint Motion (Dkt. #369) at ¶¶ 5-10; see also Hanlon v. Chrysler, 150 F.3d 1011, 1024 (9th Cir. 1998) (“There is no class action rule, statute, or case that allows a putative class plaintiff or counsel to exercise class rights en masse, either by making a class-wide objection or by attempting to effect a group-wide exclusion from an existing class. Indeed, to do so would infringe on the due process rights of the individual class members, who have the right to intelligently and individually choose whether to continue in a suit as class members.”); Sloan v. Winn Dixie Raleigh, 25 Fed. App’x 197, 198 (4th Cir. 2002); Johnson v. Hercules, 1999 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 23974, at *10-13 (S.D. Ga. 1999).

In addition, “mass” opt-outs would place significant burdens on the Class Action Settlement Administrator, which would have to verify corporate parent/subsidiary relationships and determine whether those subsidiaries were separate corporate entities (and thus should have been signed separately). See, e.g., Joiner v. Ryder Sys., 966 F. Supp. 1478, 1483 (C.D. Ill. 1996) (“In the State of Illinois (as in every state), ‘[a] corporation is a legal entity separate and distinct from its shareholders, directors, and officers.’ That same principle ‘applies even where one corporation wholly owns another and the two have mutual dealings.’”) (citation omitted); see also Abbott Laboratories v. CVS, 290 F.3d 854, 859 (7th Cir. 2002) (holding that where a subsidiary opted out of a settlement, but the parent company remained in the settlement and was bound by a release, the parent’s participation did not bind the subsidiary because “[o]nly the subsidiary’s board of directors or CEO can dismiss [the subsidiary’s] suit against Abbott”). And that expense would, of course, be borne by the Class, since the costs of administration is paid by the Settlement Fund. See Settlement Agreement (Dkt. #306-1) at § III(A). Accordingly, Stericycle submits that such requests for exclusion should be barred to the extent that they were not properly cured. See disc. supra at 6-9.³

For the reasons stated herein, Stericycle respectfully requests that the Court deny the Emergency Motion to Reconsider (Dkt. #379) and enter an order that all entities and individuals who did not submit proper and timely cures be “bound by all proceedings, orders and judgments in the Litigation” and they will otherwise be eligible to receive the benefits of the Settlement.

³ At this late date, Stericycle objects to allowing any late cure notices. Stericycle had offered to accept the late cure notices if Beck Redden agreed to withdraw its motion, but Beck Redden did not so agree. It appears that the majority of the late cures could have been mailed within the cure period or very shortly thereafter, but were not. As such, Stericycle does not believe that those individuals and entities have demonstrated excusable neglect.

See March 14, 2018 Order (Dkt. #386); March 1, 2018 Order (Dkt. #372).

AFFIDAVIT OF JENNIFER PRICE

STATE OF TEXAS

COUNTY OF HARRIS

Before me, the undersigned authority, did personally appear Jennifer Price, who having been duly sworn, stated under oath:

1. “My name is Jennifer Price. I am more than eighteen years of age. I am an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of Texas and am Of Counsel with the law firm of Beck Redden LLP, (“Beck Redden”). I am the lawyer with principal responsibility for communicating with clients who opted out of the Stericycle class settlement. I am of sound mind and competent to make this affidavit.
2. On Monday, March 19, 2018, Beck Redden received, via email from GCG, a copy of over 600 individual deficiency letters purportedly mailed to Beck Redden clients that day. The letters set out a response deadline of March 29, 2018. Ex. A.
3. On March 20, 2018, Beck Redden sent a form email to all clients alerting them that OCG had mailed one or more deficiency letters to them and advising them to look for a future email from Beck Redden attaching “cured” opt out notices which would need to be executed and returned to Beck Redden. Ex. B

4. In the meantime, on March 20, 2018, I worked with Beck Redden staff to create an IT platform from which we could generate, send, and track customized letters to each client designed to cure the “deficiencies” identified in the deficiency letters. Beck Redden reviewed, categorized, and sorted more than 600 letters to account for each class member and each associated location or entity. Individual account numbers were manually populated in the revised opt-out letters to the extent that data was available in our files.
5. Beginning March 21, 2018 and continuing through March 23, 2018, Beck Redden sent over 350 individualized emails to clients from my email address which included a form cover letter, instructions, and an attachment that contained the specifically populated revised opt-out letter (or letters) necessary to cure the alleged defects. Clients were instructed to include account numbers (if not already populated), execute, and return the letter to Beck Redden by email, dropbox, or fax. Ex. C.
6. Beginning March 22, 2018 and continuing through March 29, 2018, I received and reviewed executed opt-out letters from clients. I followed up with clients on an individual basis if the revised executed opt-out notice lacked requested information. In many instances, clients did not have account information available to them on the short notice required by the March 29, 2018 deadline.
7. Additionally, I contacted each client who received a “mass opt-out” deficiency letter to discuss the evidence of “proof of ownership” requested in the deficiency letter. To assist clients, I generated a “Declaration of Ownership” affidavit, customized it, and sent it to each affected client to execute in addition to the revised opt-out letter.

8. Beginning March 26, 2018 and continuing through March 29, 2018, I followed up with clients on an individual basis to urge them to execute the revised opt-out letter. Most clients responded to these requests, but a few clients never responded despite my repeated efforts.
9. At the end of the day on March 29, 2018, Beck Redden forwarded “cure” notices on behalf of 316 clients (including SCI and other multiple entity/location clients). At that time, 33 clients had not responded.
10. Since March 29, 2018, I have received 5 more revised opt-out notices (“late-cures”) which I submitted to OCG on April 20, 2018. Based on email correspondence or telephone calls with counsel, I am aware that each of the clients who forwarded a late cure after March 29, 2018, either was unsuccessful in its attempt to forward the revised opt-out notice to Beck Redden or had just cause for their delay.
 - Niki Cronk faxed her opt-out notice to a number she believed to be Beck Redden, but Beck Redden did not receive the notice timely. I contacted Dr. Cronk prior to March 29, 2018, but she was on vacation at a remote hotel and unable to resend the revised opt-out letter until she returned from vacation. Ex. D.
 - Stanley Funeral Home also inadvertently faxed its revised opt-out letter to the wrong number and re-sent it later, after discovering the error. Ex. E.
 - Affordable Burial, Omega Funeral and Cremation, and Cutbirth & Sanderson all attempted to email the revised notice to Beck Redden timely but later learned that Beck Redden did not receive the letter. Thereafter, the opt-out letters were successfully sent. Ex. F-H.

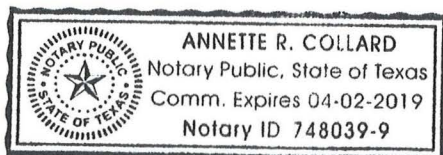

11. I delayed forwarding the “late-cures” until April 20, 2018 for the following reasons. First, I was uncertain how many clients would submit letters after the deadline established by the court order, and I anticipated submitting all of the late-cure letters as a group for consideration at the time of the hearing on our clients’ Emergency Motion to Reconsider Request for Exclusion and Joint Motion to Enforce (see Doc. No. 369 and Doc. No. 372) which was initially scheduled for April 10, 2018. Second, I did not know the Administrator would consider the late-cure letters until a meet-and-confer call on April 19, 2018 between Beck Redden and Stericycle counsel, during which representatives of Beck Redden asked whether late cures would be considered and Stericycle’s counsel responded that it would be necessary to tender any proposed late cures to the Administrator for consideration.

12. On April 20, 2018, I submitted to OCG the late cures received by clients to date. Beck Redden has not received any additional late cures, nor have we received any other instructions from the 28 clients who originally authorized opt-out notices but have not responded to requests for additional information.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.”

NOTICE OF DEFICIENT REQUEST FOR EXCLUSION

Dear NICKI CRONK, DNP APRN, FNP-BC:

You are receiving this letter because you submitted a request for exclusion from the In Re: Stericycle, Steri-Safe Contract Litigation.

As noted in Paragraph 38 of the Preliminary Approval Order (the "Order"), Class Members who wished to exclude themselves from the Settlement were required to submit a written request for exclusion by mail, postmarked by January 22, 2018, to the Settlement Administrator. Per Section VI of the Settlement Agreement and the requirements set forth in the Long Form Notice approved by the Court, written requests for exclusion must include your name (or the name of your business that was a Stericycle customer), address, and your signature. Requests for exclusions not individually signed by the Class Member are not allowed. The request submitted on behalf of the above Class Member was not signed by the Class Member but was signed by counsel. The Court has determined that attorney-signed exclusions are invalid, but is providing an opportunity to cure the deficiency by providing a request for exclusion signed by the Class Member (or an authorized officer, director, manager, or employee of the Class Member) within the time allotted.

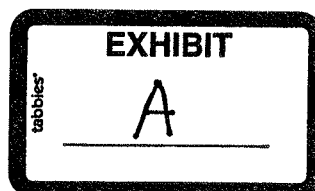

Please submit a signed and valid request for exclusion postmarked no later than March 29, 2018. Please reference the GCG Class Member number listed at the top of this letter in your request and return the updated request with a copy of this letter.

Please note that if you do not timely respond, your request will be deemed invalid and you will be bound by the terms of the Settlement.

If you have questions about the above, please contact the Settlement Administrator at questions@StericycleClassAction.com. You may also view the Order, Settlement Agreement, and Long Form Notice at www.StericycleClassAction.com.

Sincerely,
Settlement Administrator

Stericycle: Urgent Notice

Action Required – Deadline March 27, 2018

Beck Redden timely filed on your behalf a notice of intent to opt-out of the Class Action Settlement.

Class Counsel and the Defendants have obtained orders from the Court clarifying, or adding, to the opt-out requirements. We do not agree with the new conditions; however, we believe the safest course is to comply to the extent it is possible to do so in the short time that has been provided.

Beck Redden is preparing for your signature an amended request to opt-out, which you will receive from me via email from me by Friday of this week.

In order to protect your right to opt-out of the Class Action Settlement, you must have an authorized officer, director, manager or employee sign that letter and return it to me no later than Tuesday, March 27, 2018.

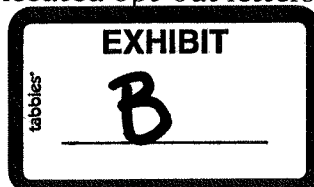

You will likely receive by mail a letter from the Settlement Administrator describing the asserted deficiency(ies) in your prior opt-out. That letter will show a deadline of March 29, 2018. Please disregard that deadline. If you get your letter to me via email by March 27, 2018, we will ensure it gets timely mailed.

WHAT TO DO:

- 1) Look for an email from me and an attached amended opt-out letter for your company or companies.
- 2) Upon receipt, execute each and every opt-out letter attached to the email and immediately return to me via email or fax. The Court is requiring a separate letter be executed for each location.
- 3) In some instances, when Stericycle could not match your company to a Class Member record the deficiency letter requests that you provide your customer account number and/or any additional names or addresses for the requested exclusion. Please provide that information with the signed opt-out letter.

Time is of the essence. I need the executed letters returned to me no later than March 27, 2018.

Beck Redden will send the individually executed opt-out letters to the Claims Administrator.

Please contact me with any questions.

Subject: Urgent Request - Stericycle Litigation CM No 219
Attachments: 219_Cremation Society Of Mn - Brooklyn Park_Revised Opt Out Letter.pdf

Note: This matter is Court-ordered and time sensitive – executed letters must be returned to Beck Redden by March 27, 2018.

I am attaching one or more letters that must be signed by a person authorized to sign on behalf of the company referenced in the letter.

As indicated by the signature line on the attached letter(s), please also write in the title of the person signing the letter. It is fine for you to edit and initial the letters to provide for the signature of an alternative authorized person (along with the person's title).

Pursuant to the Court's order, if more than one letter is attached, an authorized person must sign each of the letters, even though it might seem redundant.

Please make an effort to locate your Stericycle account number that will appear on a recent invoice and fill in the space in the attached letter. If you cannot locate that number, please return the signed letter to us and then update us with that information once you have obtained it.

Please execute and return attached opt-out notice(s) ASAP and no later than March 27, 2018. Please return to us by email at Stericyclelitigation@beckredden.com. You may also return the executed opt-out agreements directly to me or return them by fax at (713) 951-3720. For your convenience, you may also upload the executed opt-out notices to our secure FTP site at the following link: <https://files.beckredden.com/ul/PJz6dCtNjG>.

Again, this is Court-ordered and extremely time-sensitive. If you have any questions, please email me directly or reach me by telephone.

Very truly yours,

DECLARATION OF KATHLEEN P. LALLY

I, Kathleen P. Lally, declare and state as follows:

1. I am an attorney admitted to practice law in the State of Illinois. I am Counsel with the law firm of Latham & Watkins LLP and counsel for Defendant Stericycle, Inc. (“Stericycle”) in the above-captioned multidistrict litigation (the “MDL”). This declaration is based upon my first-hand knowledge, review of relevant documents and information provided by the Class Action Settlement Administrator. If called upon to do so, I could and would testify competently thereto.¹

2. On at least three occasions, a request for exclusion was submitted by both Beck Redden and Meyers and Flowers for the same entity. For example, requests for exclusions were submitted for Thomae-Garza Funeral Directors, Garza Memorial Funeral Home and Bullock Funeral Home by both Beck Redden and Meyers and Flowers.

3. In addition, a request for exclusion was submitted by Beck Redden on behalf of Albuquerque Central Care Center, which is named in one of the suits filed by Meyers and Flowers in Kane County. See Carriage Services, et al. v. Stericycle, Case No. 18-L-108 (Circuit

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States that the foregoing is true and correct.
